What is this product?

Global Unconstrained Equity Fund (the “Fund”) is a sub-fund of BlackRock Global Funds (“BGF”), an open-ended investment company incorporated in Luxembourg. Its home regulator is the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier (CSSF).

Objectives and Investment Strategy

To achieve long term capital growth by investing at least 80% of its total assets in equity securities and equity-related securities (namely American Depositary Receipts (“ADRs”) and Global Depositary Receipts (“GDRs”)) of companies domiciled in, or exercising a significant part of their economic activity in, global developed markets. ADRs and GDRs are investments issued by financial institutions which give exposure to underlying equity securities. These instruments will be listed or traded on regulated markets.

Investment decisions are based on company-specific research to identify and select equity securities that, in the opinion of the Investment Adviser, have a viable competitive advantage and the potential to produce attractive long-term capital growth. The Fund has an unconstrained investment style (i.e. it will not take a benchmark index into account when selecting the Fund’s investments) and its portfolio is expected to be concentrated (i.e. it is expected to hold relatively fewer stocks in larger weightings in comparison to other funds and focused in certain markets (e.g. US and Europe)), but there is no guarantee that this will always be the case.

Subject to applicable regulatory restrictions and internal guidelines, although most of the Fund’s investments will be in companies located in developed markets globally, the remaining 20% of the Fund’s total assets may also invest in:

- emerging markets, namely equity securities and equity related securities (namely ADRs and GDRs) of companies domiciled in, or exercising a significant part of their economic activity in, global emerging markets;
- cash and/or cash equivalents (such as term deposits and bank certificates), liquid government debt instruments and money market instruments (including certificates of deposit, commercial paper and bankers acceptances); and
- other collective investment schemes (“CIS”), including exchange-traded funds (where the objectives of such CIS are consistent with the Fund’s objective or for efficiently managing cash holdings and/or collateral). The Fund may not invest more than 10% of its net asset value in other CIS.

The Fund’s expected total maximum investment in debt instruments with loss-absorption features, including but not limited to contingent convertible bonds, will be less than 30% of its net asset value. These instruments may be subject to contingent write-down or contingent conversion to ordinary shares on the occurrence of trigger event(s).

The Fund may use derivatives for hedging, efficient portfolio management and investment purposes.

Use of Derivatives/Investment in Derivatives

The Fund’s net derivative exposure may be up to 50% of the Fund’s net asset value.

What are the key risks?

Investment involves risks. Please refer to the offering document for details including the risk factors.

1. Investment Risks

The Fund is an investment fund. The Fund’s investment portfolio may fall in value due to any of the risk factors below and therefore your investment in the Fund may suffer losses. There is no guarantee of the repayment of principal.

2. Equity Risk

The values of equities fluctuate daily and the Fund investing in equities is subject to general market risks and could incur significant losses. The price of equities can be influenced by many factors at the individual company level, as well as by broader economic and political developments, including changes in investment sentiment, trends in economic growth, inflation and interest rates, issuer-specific factors, corporate earnings reports, demographic trends and catastrophic events.

3. Concentration Risks

The Fund’s investments are concentrated in fewer stocks in larger weightings as compared to other funds and in certain global developed markets (e.g. US and Europe). The value of the Fund may be more volatile than that of a fund having a more diverse portfolio of investments.

The value of the Fund may be more susceptible to adverse economic, political, policy, foreign exchange, liquidity, tax, sustainability related, legal or regulatory event affecting the global developed markets (e.g. US and Europe).

4. Currency Risks

The Fund may invest in assets denominated in a currency other than the base currency of the Fund. Also, a class of shares may be designated in a currency other than the base currency of the Fund. Changes in exchange rates between such currency and the base currency and changes in exchange rate controls may adversely affect the value of the Fund's assets.

5. Derivatives Risks

Risks associated with derivatives include counterparty/credit risk, liquidity risk, valuation risk, volatility risk and over-the-counter transaction risk. The leverage element/component of a derivative can result in a loss significantly greater than the amount invested in the derivative by the Fund. In an adverse situation, if the use of derivatives for hedging and efficient portfolio management becomes ineffective, the Fund may suffer significant losses.

6. Small/Mid Cap Companies Risks

Many small/mid cap company stocks trade less frequently and in smaller volume, and may be subject to more abrupt or erratic price movements than stocks of large companies. The securities of small/mid cap companies may also be more sensitive to market changes than the securities of large companies.

7. Currency Conversion Risk for Renminbi (“RMB”) Denominated Classes

The Fund offers RMB denominated share classes. RMB is currently not freely convertible and is subject to exchange controls and restrictions.

Under exceptional circumstances, payment of realisation proceeds and/or dividend payment (if any) in RMB may be delayed due to the exchange controls and restrictions applicable to RMB.

RMB is traded in both the onshore and offshore markets. While both onshore RMB (“CNY”) and offshore RMB (“CNH”) represent the same currency, they are traded in different and separate markets which operate independently. The Management Company will apply the CNH rate for currency conversion of RMB denominated share classes. Any divergence between CNH and CNY may adversely impact investors.

How has the fund performed?

There is insufficient data to provide useful indication of past performance to investors as the Fund is newly established for less than a full calendar year.

Is there any guarantee?

This Fund does not have any guarantees. You may not get back the full amount of money you invest.
