FUND OVERVIEW

The Fund seeks to track the performance of an index composed of international infrastructure companies from both developed and emerging countries.

The index provider has decided to discontinue the Macquarie Global Infrastructure 100 index as of 22 May 2017, and as a result the Fund has decided to replace this index with the FTSE Global Core Infrastructure Index. The change will be reflected in the benchmark data.

KEY BENEFITS

1. Exposure to the largest and most liquid infrastructure companies across the globe
2. Access to infrastructure companies from both Emerging and Developed Markets
3. Gain exposure to the infrastructure sector

CAPITAL AT RISK: The value of investments and the income from them can fall as well as rise and are not guaranteed. Investors may not get back the amount originally invested.

KEY RISKS:

- Investment risk is concentrated in specific sectors, countries, currencies or companies. This means the Fund is more sensitive to any localised economic, market, political, sustainability-related or regulatory events.
- The value of equities and equity-related securities can be affected by daily stock market movements. Other influential factors include political, economic news, company earnings and significant corporate events.
- Investments in infrastructure securities are subject to environmental or sustainability concerns, taxes, government regulation, price, supply and competition.
- Counterparty Risk: The insolvency of any institutions providing services such as safekeeping of assets or acting as counterparty to derivatives or other instruments, may expose the Share Class to financial loss.
